TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – JUNE 21, 2026 – FATHER’S DAY

Welcome Father Andrew P. Carrozza

With joyful anticipation, our parish family welcomes Father Andrew P. Carrozza, of late pastor of Saint Denis Parish in Hopewell Junction. With the merger of Saint Denis and Saint Kateri Tekakwitha, LaGrangeville, Father Carrozza, in his charity has responded to the request of Archbishop Ronald Hicks to serve as temporary administrator of Regina Coeli Church, effective July 1, 2026, while I continue to reside here at the parish and accept treatments for my cancer diagnosis.

Father Carrozza, a native of Pearl River, New York, was ordained a priest of the archdiocese of New York on May 12, 1990 by the late John Cardinal O’Connor, Archbishop of New York. Father Carrozza served for thirteen years at Saint Ann’s Parish in Yonkers, and for the past five years, has served as pastor with great distinction at Saint Denis here in Dutchess County.

I have known Father Carrozza for forty years going back to our days at Saint Joseph’s Seminary, Dunwoodie. I even preached at Father Carrozza’s twenty-fifth anniversary Mass of ordination back in 2015, which for me was a singular honor. And to the best of my knowledge, Father Carrozza is the only professional meteorologist among the presbyterate in New York. So if you have any questions pertaining to weather items and conditions, Father Carrozza is your “go-to source.”

Father Carrozza has demonstrated great generosity in accepting the role as administrator here at Regina Coeli. He could have easily gone on to serve as a pastor in another parish in the Archdiocese, but chose to help a priest-friend in need. For that I am eternally grateful to Father Carrozza, and such a gesture of selflessness speaks volumes about this great priest.

Please keep Father Carrozza in your prayers, and thank you to our parish family for your love, prayers, and incredible goodness to me as I begin my medical treatments.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I Trust in Thee!
