Sanctuary Lamp

The Church Sanctuary Lamp will burn this week In Loving Memory of Luca Moscateillo requested by Son & Daughter-in-law, Rita

The Chapel Sanctuary Lamp will burn this week in Loving Memory of Maureen Garcia requested by husband, Bruce

For you, Lord, give light to my lamp; my God brightens my darkness. (Ps. 18:29)

2023 Sanctuary Lamp Donations for Church or Chapel

Because of the honor given to Christ's body and blood, a red votive candle, known as the Sanctuary Lamp, is traditionally lit beside the tabernacle to show that it contains the consecrated elements. The Sanctuary Lamp reminds Catholics that Jesus is present in the tabernacle, and we often pray before the tabernacle and reflect on the mystery of Christ's presence in the Eucharist. Consider donating the Sanctuary Lamp in Saint Dominic Church or Saint Joseph Chapel in memory of a loved one who has died, to celebrate a special occasion, or to honor a living person. The name/occasion will be acknowledged in the Parish bulletin. Please indicate the week (week begins Sunday) and your preference ~ Church OR Chapel. The donation for each Sanctuary Lamp is $10.

2023 Flower Donations for Church and Chapel

Many people have special days in the year which they commemorate. Flowers on the altars of St. Dominic Church and Saint Joseph Chapel can fittingly mark an anniversary of a marriage or death, or may be used as an expression of joy or thanksgiving at any time. Anyone may give flowers for any week desired (week begins Sunday). Your donation includes flower arrangements that adorn the altars in BOTH Saint Dominic Church AND Saint Joseph Chapel. The name/occasion will be acknowledged in the parish bulletin. Please remember that there are no flowers on the altars during Lent or Advent. Flower donations will NOT be taken February 26 through April 23 (Lent/Easter) or December 3 through December 31 (Advent/Christmas). Currently, the donation for Altar Flowers is $100.00

A Letter From Our Pastor

REV. BRIAN PATRICK WOODROW

Dear Parish Family,

The Great Greek philosopher, Plato, was one of the most important thinkers in the course of human history. Once he wrote that "only the dead have seen the end of war". This poignant and powerful quote expresses the desire of all mankind to seek and work for peace and yet we still understand that we will not truly know that great gift in its entirety until we have passed on from this world. That being said, we know that it is not part of the Christian mentality nor is it even possible for a true Christian to ever give up! It is in our calling to always work towards peace no matter how bleak or desperate times may seem.

It is this weekend in particular that we thank God for so many brave men and women who so greatly have marched on before us to fight for our freedom. Sometimes we can easily forget how blessed we are to be living in the United States. Our country is able to celebrate openly and freely the teachings of our Lord Jesus Christ without having to be in constant fear of physical persecution. We owe countless men and women of the armed forces a great deal of gratitude for that. Yes, we must pray for peace and conduct ourselves peacefully, but never forget that it is also a God-given right to protect our Country and our families from evil influences of hatred and animosity that ultimately seek to deny us of our God-given rights.

This Memorial Day weekend, let us celebrate and enjoy our freedom. Amidst some of our barbecues, baseball games or simple moments of rest let us remember and thank God for all those for whom we keep this memorial for this weekend! May God rest their souls and may God continue to bless America! Please continue to pray for me as I will pray for you.

Please continue to pray for me as I will pray for you.

Magno Cum Gaudio,

Fr. Brian Patrick Woodrow

What is Eucharistic Adoration?

According to Pope Benedict, Adoration means entering the depths of our hearts in Communion with the Lord, who makes Himself bodily present in the Eucharist. In the Monstrance, he always entrusts Himself to us and asks us to be united with His presence with His Risen Eody.

It is important to be attentive to the Lord's gestures on our journey. He speaks to us through events, through people, through encounters: It is necessary to be attentive to all of this.

Taken from Pope Benedict's book ... "An Invitation to Faith"
Eucharistic Adoration is held every day from 12 Noon until 4:00 PM - on Wednesday, we extend Adoration until 8:00 PM. We hope you will take advantage of this to become closer to Jesus.

Eucharistic Adoration will not be held on Monday, May 29. Adoration will resume Tuesday, May 30 following the 11:00 AM Mass.

Notice: Parish Rectory Office will be Closed 5/29/23

The Rectory Office will be closed on Monday, May 29th, in observance of Memorial Day.

We pray and honor the memory of service members and their families who have sacrificed to protect the freedom we enjoy.

God Bless America!

Prayer for Memorial Day

"God of power and mercy, you destroy war and put down earthly pride. Banish violence from our midst and wipe away our tears, that we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters.

Keep in your mercy those men and women who have died in the cause of freedom and bring them safely into your kingdom of justice and peace.

We ask this though Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen"

Hope & Healing Ministry

The number of overdoses and deaths are staggering and continue to be on the uprise. With several very dedicated members of our parish community, we have come together to develop a ministry to address these major issues. We are able to offer our ministry, "Hope and Healing", whose goal it is to offer support to individuals, their family and friends who are suffering from the disease of addiction, in a spiritual, open-minded, faith-centered community. "Hope and Healing" respects the highest ethical standards of confidentiality, anonymity, and support with dignity and respect.

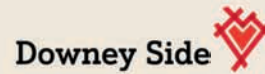

The effects of addiction go far beyond the individual addict from family and friends, to the community at large. But hope and recovery is possible. The Hope and Healing Ministry will offer a culture of acceptance and will provide additional informational and community resources. We meet every Wednesday at 7:00 PM in the Community Room.

Ministry of Altar Linen Care

With deep love and reverence for the Holy Eucharist, the Altar Linen Care Ministry cares for the sacred linens on a rotating schedule. Training is provided on how to care for these special linens. Our Lady of Guadalupe Pro-Life Ministry of St. Dominic's Mission Statement

With prayer, compassion, and the guidance of the Holy Spirit, under the mantle of Our Lady of Guadalupe, the St. Dominic's Pro-Life Ministry answers the call of God to defend the sanctity of life from conception to natural death, in accordance with the teaching of the Catholic Church. Our mission is to educate and inform the Parish Community on Pro-Life issues, to raise awareness of:

- The humanity of the pre-born child.
- The dignity of the elderly and vulnerable in our society.
- Issues on abortion, euthanasia and assisted suicide.
- Those who suffer post-abortion trauma.
- The needs of caregivers dealing with end-of-life issues.
- Fund raising opportunities to support Pregnancy Help Centers.

A Prayer to Mary

"O Most Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Mercy, we entrust the United States of America to your loving care. We beg you to reclaim this land for the glory of your Son. Overwhelmed with the burden of the sins of our nation, we cry to you from the depths of our hearts and seek refuge in your motherly protection. Look down with mercy upon us and touch the hearts of our people. Open our minds to the great worth of human life and to the responsibilities that accompany human freedom. Free us from the falsehoods that lead to the evil of abortion and threaten the sanctity of human life. Grant our country the wisdom to proclaim that God's law is the foundation on which this nation was founded, and that He alone is the True Source of our cherished rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

O Merciful Mother, give us the courage to reject the culture of death and the strength to build a new Culture of Life.
Amen"

If you have any questions or would like to join this ministry, please contact Linda Verheyen at 848-333-8633 and Peter Phillips at 732-275-4576.

The 10:30 A.M. Mass on Pentecost Sunday, May 28, 2023, will be celebrated by Bishop David O'Connell

The Feast of Pentecost is also known as the birthday of the church and is the day that we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles.

It is considered the birthday of the Church as it marks the beginning of the Apostles answering Jesus's call - proclaiming the Gospel and Baptizing in His name.

The Advocate of the Holy Spirit remains with us today!

Bishop David O'Connell, C.M.

"If you love me, you will keep my commandments.. Gospel Reading ~ John 20:19-23

Jesus appears to his disciples and gives them the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Pentecost is sometimes called the birthday of the Church. The Gospel for Pentecost reminds us that the Church begins with the command to forgive. Within the family, the domestic Church, we learn how to forgive and how to accept forgiveness. The gift of the Holy Spirit enables us to do both. Today is a fitting time to share a family celebration of reconciliation.

As you gather together as a family, sit quietly for a few minutes, inviting everyone to reflect upon their need to forgive and to receive forgiveness. If there is a situation or an issue within the family that needs attention, spend some time reflecting on how your family might address it. Read together today's Gospel, John 20:19-23. Talk together about how Jesus gave us the gift of the Holy Spirit to help us in the work of forgiveness and to bring us peace. Pray together today's Psalm or the Prayer to the Holy Spirit, asking that the Holy Spirit help your family. Share with one another a Sign of Peace.

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful.
And kindle in them the fire of your love.
Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created.
And you will renew the face of the earth.
Lord, by the light of the Holy Spirit
you have taught the hearts of your faithful.
In the same Spirit, help us to relish what is right and always rejoice in your consolation.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The month of May is dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary.
"Hail holy Mother, thou who dost bring forth the King who rules heaven and earth forever and ever."

Prayer to Mary

"O Mary, my dear Mother, how much I love thee! And yet in reality how little! Thou dost teach me what I ought to know, for thou teachest me what Jesus is to me and what I ought to be for Jesus.

Dearly beloved Mother, how close to God thou art, and how utterly filled with Him!
In the measure that we know God, we remind ourselves of thee.
Mother of God, obtain for me the grace of loving my Jesus; obtain for me the grace of loving thee!"

Pentecost Sunday

First Reading: Acts 2:1-11

On the feast of Pentecost, the disciples were gathered together when suddenly tongues of fire rested upon them, and they were filled with the Holy Spirit. They began to speak in many tongues; those who heard them were filled with amazement.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Paul tells the Corinthians that each possesses different gifts and performs different ministries, but each works for the common good in Christ Jesus.

Gospel: John 20:19-23

Jesus appears to the apostles after his resurrection and bestows upon them the power to forgive sins.

Gospel (John 14 : 23 - 31)

In illo tempore: Dixit Jesus discipulis suis: Si quis diligit me, sermonem meum servabit, et Pater meus diliget eum, et ad eum veniemus et mansionem apud eum faciemus: qui non diligit me, sermones meos non servat. Et sermonem quem audistis, non est meus: sed ejus, qui misit me, Patris. Hæc locutus sum vobis, apud vos manens. Paraclitus autem Spiritus Sanctus, quem mittet Pater in nomine meo, illo vos docebit omnia et suggeret quaecumquæ dixero vobis. Pacem relinquo vobis, pacem meam do vobis: non quomodo mundus dat, ego do vobis. Non turbetur cor vestrum neque formidet. Audistis quia ego dixi vobis: Vado et venio ad vos. Si diligeretis me, gauderetis utique, quia vado ad Patrem: quia Pater major me est. Et nunc dixi priusquam fiat: ut cum factum fuerit, credatis. Jam non multa loquar vobiscum. Venit enim princeps mundi hujus, et in me non habet quidquam. Sed ut cognoscat mundus, quia diligo Patrem, et sicut mandatum dedit mihi Pater, sic facio. — Credo.

At that time Jesus said to His disciples: If any one love Me, he will keep My word, and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and will make Our abode in him: he that loveth Me not, keepeth not My words. And the word which you have heard is not Mine; but the Father's who sent Me. These things have I spoken to you, abiding with you. But the Paraclete, the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in My Name, He will teach you all things, and bring all things to your mind, whatsoever I shall have said to you. Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, do I give unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor let it be afraid. You have heard that I said to you: I go away, and I come unto you. If you loved Me, you would indeed be glad, because I go to the Father: for the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it come to pass: that when it shall come to pass you may believe. I will not now speak many things with you. For the prince of this world cometh, and in Me he hath not any thing. But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father hath given Me commandment, so do I. — Creed.

he series of the mysteries is now completed, and the movable cycle of the liturgy has come to its close. We first passed, during Advent, the four weeks, which represented the four thousand years spent by mankind in entreating the eternal Father to send His Son. Our Emmanuel at length came down; we shared in the joys of His Birth, in the dolors of His Passion, in the glory of His Resurrection, in the triumph of His Ascension. Lastly, we have witnessed the descent of the Holy Ghost upon us, and we know that He is to abide with us to the last. Holy Church has assisted us throughout the whole of this sublime drama, which contains the work of our salvation. Her heavenly canticles, her magnificent ceremonies, have instructed us day by day, enabling us to follow and understand each feast and season. Blessed be this mother for the care wherewith she has placed all these great mysteries before us, thus giving us light and love! Blessed be the sacred liturgy, which has brought us so much consolation and encouragement! We have now to pass through the immovable portion of the cycle: we shall find sublime spiritual episodes, worthy of all our attention. Let us, then, prepare to resume our journey: let us take fresh courage in the thought that the Holy Ghost will direct our steps, and, by the sacred liturgy, of which He is the inspirer, will continue to throw open to us treasures of precept and example.

Commentary from The Liturgical Year by Dom Prosper Guéranger O.S.B. (1805-1875).

Traditional Latin Mass Altar Servers

Faith ~ Brotherhood
Challenge ~ Leadership

These are four major qualities men and boys, age 12 and up, can develop by signing up to serve the Usus Antiquior (Ancient Use) of The Roman Ritual! Delve deeper into your faith, meet and work with other like-minded individuals, challenge yourself to learn the intricate rubrics of an ancient form of sacrifice, and develop strong leadership qualities.

Father Brian Woodrow extends a personal invitation to any young man, aged twelve and older, to become an Altar Server and serve our Lord through this form of the Sacrifice of Mass.

If you are interested in serving as an Altar Server or for more information, please send an email to scheduler@churchofstdominic.com

Convivium!

'For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them.' (Mt 18:20)

There will be no Convivium this Sunday, May 28th.
Have a blessed and safe Memorial Day!

All are invited to join us weekly after the 12:00 Noon Traditional Latin Mass in the Narthex! The word convivium is rooted in Latin and means a convivial (jovial) gathering. There is no charge! This gathering is a great opportunity for fun & fellowship!

We could use your help - Interested in bringing a dish or lending a helping-hand? Please contact Marjorie via email scheduler@churchofstdominic.com or via telephone (732) 840-1410 ext. 250

Gospel!

Jesus visited the disciples and told them to, "Receive the Holy Spirit." The Holy Spirit is the third part of the trinity. It helps us to have strong faith in God and to make good choices. The Holy Spirit is shown as fire and a dove.
