Prayer for Priests - St. Thérèse of the Child Jesus

O Jesus, Eternal Priest, keep your priests within the shelter of your Most Sacred Heart, where none can touch them. Keep unstained their anointed hands, which daily touch your Sacred Body. Keep unsullied their lips, daily tinged with your Precious Blood. Keep pure and unworldly their hearts, sealed with the sublime mark of the priesthood. Let Your Holy Love surround and protect them from the world's contagion. Bless their labors with abundant fruit, and may the souls to whom they minister be their joy and consolation here, and their everlasting crown in the hereafter. Amen.

PRAY FOR SEMINIARIANS

Rev. Mr.
Nicholas
Jones

Oh God, hear our prayer for the men you have chosen to follow in your Son's footsteps. Teach them humility and fidelity to unselfishly help others. May their devotion to Our Blessed Mother, Queen of Vocations increase, enabling them to do your will. Strengthen their prayer life that they may grow spiritually without worldly distractions. Give them courage and perseverance in their studies. May the Holy Spirit lighten their struggles with their vocations, until they know the joy of being a priest. We ask this through Christ your Son. Amen.

Welcome to St. Theresa and St. Christopher Parishes

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

St. Bartholomew

Died: Albanopolis, Armenia. 69 or 71 A.D., Flayed alive and Beheaded

Place of Burial: Basilica of St. Bartholomew on the Island, Rome

Feast Day: August 24th

Patronage: Armenia, bookbinders, leatherworkers, shoemakers, skin and neurological diseases

In considering the Apostle St. Bartholomew, we must first look at an apparent discrepancy in name. The Synoptic Gospels refer to him as Bartholomew, while St. John's Gospel uses the name Nathanael. It helps if we know what Bartholomew means in the Aramaic language. In Aramaic, "bar" means "son". In ancient times, it was customary for people to introduce themselves by their first name, followed by who their father was. This is why, when Jesus changes Simon's name to Peter, he first calls him "Simon Bar-Jona", meaning "Simon, son of Jonah". So the name Bartholomew literally means "son of Tolmai". Therefore, tradition holds that Nathanael is Bartholomew's first name.

The New Testament does not tell us much about the life and ministry of St. Bartholomew. We do know that he came from Cana in Galilee, the same place where Jesus performed His first miracle of changing water into wine at the wedding feast. St. John's Gospel also tells us of how Bartholomew became a disciple of Jesus, as I alluded to in last week's reflection of St. Philip. After Philip brings Bartholomew to Jesus, Jesus gives to Bartholomew one of the greatest compliments that we hear in the Gospels: Here is a true Israelite. There is no duplicity in him. (John 1:47). Bartholomew is surprised at this declaration of Christ, who knows the minds and hearts of all, and he asks Jesus how He knows him. The answer of Jesus may leave us slightly puzzled: Before Philip called you, I saw you under the fig tree. But for Bartholomew, this struck a chord. As one book of the saints recounts, "Apparently [this answer] refers to Christ's supernatural knowledge of some crisis that was going on at that time in Nathanael's mind, for the latter's response is a full act of faith." From this encounter, Bartholomew becomes a disciple of Jesus and one of the Apostles.

Tradition holds that Bartholomew preached the Gospel in southern Arabia and later in Armenia, where he was martyred under King Astyages. From Jesus's words to Bartholomew, we can ascertain that he was honest, transparent, loyal, and faithful. His "yes" meant yes, and his "no" meant no. We pray that the Lord Jesus may be able to say the same of us. St. Bartholomew, pray for us!

St. Christopher and St. Theresa, pray for us!

In Christ,
Fr. Dufour
