ALL SAINTS

GOSPEL MT 22:15-21

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him. He began to teach them, saying:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven."

All Souls

The Church assigns a particular devotion to each month of the year. As All Souls Day falls during the month of November, this month has traditionally been dedicated to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. It has always been part of our Catholic tradition to pray for those who have gone before us who might still be waiting to enter the Kingdom of God. The Church teaches that Purgatory is a place of purification from sin. If we are not completely prepared when we die to enter the presence of God, then God in His mercy, offers us this last opportunity to enter into His glory.

The souls in Purgatory cannot pray for themselves but must rely upon our charity. Each time we offer Mass for them, pray for them, make some sacrifice for them, their time in Purgatory is shortened. We may also gain indulgences for the souls in Purgatory. An indulgence is the remission of punishment due to sin which is granted by the Church for performing certain actions. These indulgences may be gained for ourselves or may be applied to the souls in Purgatory. There are indulgences granted for reciting the Rosary, reading Sacred Scripture and many other devotions. More information about the teaching of indulgences can be found in the Catechism of the Catholic Church or the Catholic Encyclopedia online.

Again, it is an act of charity to pray for the dead. In addition to remembering our own friends and loved ones who have passed away we should also pray for those who have no one to pray for themselves. We can be sure that these souls will be grateful for our generosity and pray for us in return.

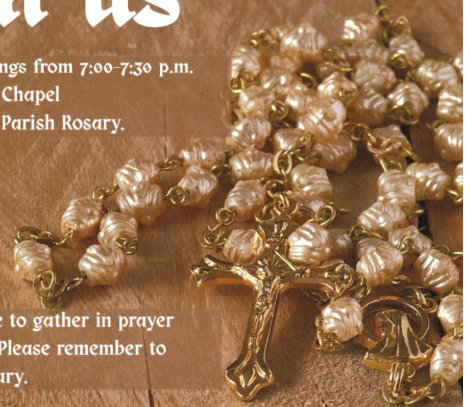

Please be sure to use the envelopes to give us the names of those who have passed away. They will be remembered in prayer at the altar during the month of November.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them! May the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen!
