Intentions*

HOW DO I GET A MASS CARD?

The dedication of a Mass is a special way to show an expression of support, sympathy, and care for those who are ill and those who have passed. We remember the deceased and invite their family members to attend a special liturgy to honor their loved ones. It has been a long-standing tradition of the Catholic Church to commemorate and pray for those who have gone before us with a special intention during the liturgy. The Prayer of the Faithful shares the name of the person to be prayed for.

Please visit or contact the Parish office, Monday – Friday from 9 am to 4 pm at (973) 694-3400 or visit our website www.ihmwaynenj.org/mass-card, if you would like to have a Mass offering for your loved one.

MASS INTENTION DONATION IS $20.00

PRAYER FOR THE SICK

Please remember the sick and homebound of our parish family in your prayers during this week:

ROBERT RYAN, CATHY NOLAN
JOHN DAVIS, MARTY DWYER, NEIL BAKER, TERESA HILL,
NICO, JIM POTTER, & NORA O'CONNOR

When requested, names will be included on the "Prayers for the Sick" list for four weekends. Please let us know if you would like the name added again or if someone's name can be removed sooner.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Oh, to not be anxious! What would that be like – to not have to worry about how we'll pay the bills or whether our kids are safe or if our health will fail? While anxiety is a very human emotion, we can take comfort in knowing that our God is more powerful than anything that may worry us. It is also important to note that in today's reading from St. Paul's Letter to the Corinthians, what he means by "anxious" is not a modern psychological concept with only a negative connotation. The connotation is more "to be concerned with," or "caring about" something, and can refer to things that are very good – including spouses and families! But when we care for many things, including our relationship with God, it is only natural for us to be anxious at times. But Jesus Christ gives us the assurance that the troubles of this world are temporary, and the peace of God eternal. Paul is encouraging the Corinthians, and us, to understand the importance of an undivided devotion to God, to care for him above all things – no matter if we are married or single – so that our whole life is devoted to holiness.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

I am always thankful when something good that has been anticipated, or predicted, comes to pass: The sunshine and mild weather holds true for that outdoor event I hosted; or the generous gift that a longtime friend mailed arrives unscathed. There is some anxiety in the waiting for, but relief in the fulfillment of, these beneficent promises. And while these are somewhat superficial examples, they do point us in the same direction of hope and gratitude that the divine gifts of God elicit in us. In today's first reading, Moses promises the people that the Lord will raise up for them, from among their own kin, a prophet who will speak God's own words and to whom the people will listen. And the Lord did provide numerous prophets, and kings, and judges, and eventually his only begotten Son, to call his people back to himself, and to save them from the wages of sin and death. The hope and anticipation God's chosen people had was fulfilled in Jesus' life, death and resurrection. We share in that gift of hope and of gratitude for our salvation.

PRAY Today's psalm (Ps 95:1-2, 6-7, 7-9) is a beautiful prayer of thanksgiving and encouragement. It helps us steer our minds from those things which may make us anxious. Spend time in the morning or evening each day of the coming week, praying and reflecting on the words.

COLLECTION

Please remember the needs of our parish ministry in making your weekly offering. Thank you for all you do to enable the Gospel to touch the lives of God's people.

Joyful Ever After

Getting the Marriage You Want from the Marriage You Have
With Keynote Speakers Damon and Melanie Owens

February 10
10am-3:30pm

From the beginning, God created marriage to perfect us in life, love, and joy! It was created to transfer His deepest mystery into the visible reality of our world. So, why is marriage so hard? Every stage of married life seems to carry its own challenges to our intimacy, faithfulness, finances, communication, prayer—even our dignity and identity.

We all start our marriage journey with such hope, joy, friendship, and confidence in our future life together. But the everyday weight of life can bring doubt, fear, frustration, and loneliness. We need constant renewal and refreshment in order to get the marriage we want from the marriage we have! This renewal begins first with you individually, then as a couple, and finally in community with other couples.

You can restore your wedding-day joy, and as we are discovering, grow it into something even greater than you can imagine. Let's enrich, strengthen, and encourage each other, learning together how to live joyfully ever after!

We Love Our Catholic School!

Write something that shows what makes our school special.

Before I came to this school, I had no friends and have had horrible experiences in my old school. But here everything changed. I'm friends with everyone and I feel very welcome. Everybody here is so nice and really has made me happy, ever since the beginning. We have made so many memories here and I can't wait to make more. I will never forget them! This school is a really special place and I am glad I was apart of it. ♥

Some things that make our school special are all of the teachers. They all have patience to teach us. Another thing that make school special is how we all care for everyone in this school. We also do a lot of fundraisers for food pantries and we donate other items that are needed. There is one more very special person Father Matt. He makes our school special by how he teaches us about God and Jesus and how they love us. We do a bunch of fun things like Willy Wonka Day. I enjoyed when we made candy bridges and blew bubbles.

Our school is special because we pray for people who are sick and we do fundraisers for the homeless. We do activities like make space. I also like lego club. I enjoy doing things and activities with classmates. I like my teachers because they are nice and smart. Mrs. Giordano is a great principle because she sets up activities that bring the school community together.

IHM School to Host Radio Contact with Astronaut Crew aboard International Space Station

In a groundbreaking achievement, IHM School proudly announces its selection as one of six schools worldwide chosen to host a radio contact with the astronaut crew aboard the International Space Station (ISS).

Remarkably, IHM stands as the sole Catholic institution and the only representative from New Jersey to embark on this cosmic endeavor, thanks to a successful proposal to ARISS (Amateur Radio on the International Space Station).

ARISS, a collaborative initiative involving NASA, the Center for the Advancement of Science in Space (CASIS), the American Radio Relay League, and the Radio Amateur Satellite Corporation, facilitates communication via Amateur Radio between astronauts aboard the ISS and schools and communities globally.

Principal Giordano expressed excitement, stating, "We're starting the year with a new frontier as we learn to infinity and beyond." This extraordinary opportunity allows students from pre-K to 8 at IHM to delve into space exploration through projects, lessons, and activities. The curriculum integrates NASA's educational materials with the school's newly designed STREAM curriculum, encompassing Science, Technology, Religion, Education, Arts, and Mathematics.

The trailblazing team at IHM spearheading this ambitious project includes Damaris Herrera, IHM Educational ARISS Coordinator, Donna Roberto, Middle School Science Teacher, Christine DeRosa, STREAM Director, and Ria Jairam, Technology Coordinator. Together, they are committed to providing students with a unique and enriching experience that transcends traditional classroom boundaries.

This exceptional opportunity not only reflects IHM School's dedication to academic excellence but also emphasizes its commitment to fostering interdisciplinary learning and innovation. As IHM students embark on this cosmic journey, they are set to expand their horizons, exploring the wonders of space while integrating valuable lessons from diverse fields.

IHM School anticipates this experience will inspire and ignite a passion for learning that extends far beyond the confines of a traditional classroom lesson.

The entire IHM community eagerly awaits the upcoming radio contact with the astronaut crew aboard the ISS, marking a historic moment in the school's pursuit of educational excellence.

Baby Jesus is Presented in the Temple

On February second we celebrate the feast of the Presentation of Jesus in the Temple. That is the day that Saint Joseph and Our Lady took the baby Jesus to the Temple in Jerusalem to consecrate Him to God. The Jews were supposed to dedicate their first-born sons to God, so Mary and Joseph were obedient to the law even though their Baby was God Himself!

This was a most amazing moment, even though almost nobody noticed it: here was the great Temple where the people came to worship God, and now God had actually come into it- as a little Baby! But only Mary and Joseph and the prophets Simeon and Anna knew what had happened.

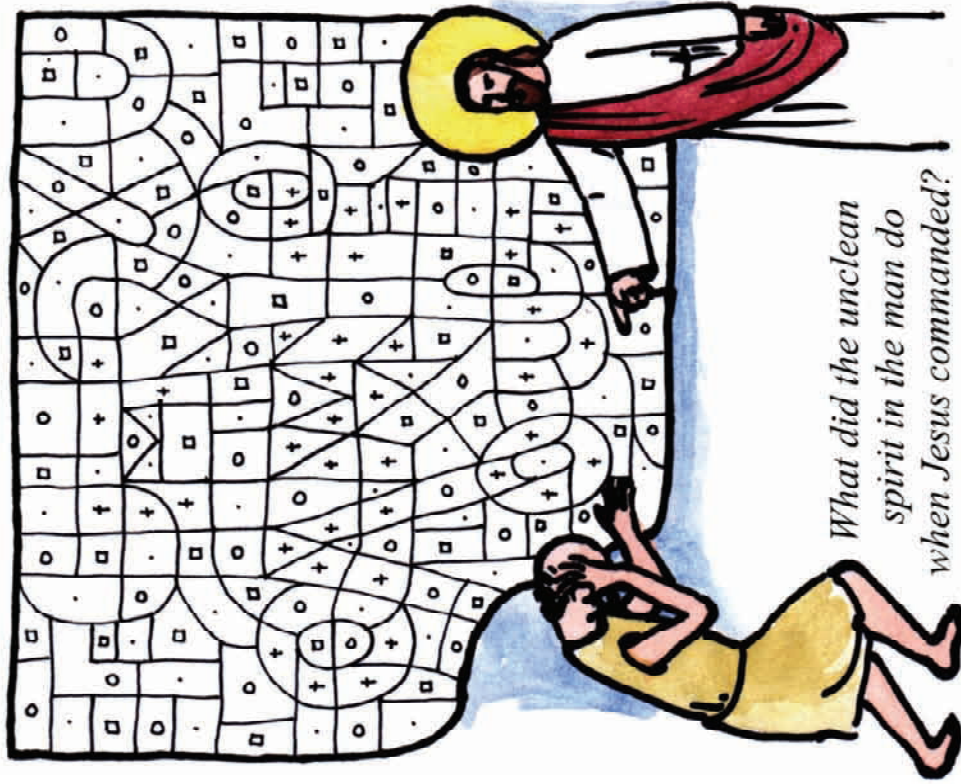

Saint Paul tells us that our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit. Every time you receive Holy Communion, it's like baby Jesus entering the Temple. When you go to Communion, remember that you know that amazing secret- that even though the rest of the world might not know, you have just received Jesus! What a special moment!
