Mass Intentions

HOW DO I GET A MASS CARD?

The dedication of a Mass is a special way to show an expression of support, sympathy, and care for those who are ill and those who have passed. We remember the deceased and invite their family members to attend a special liturgy to honor their loved ones. It has been a long-standing tradition of the Catholic Church to commemorate and pray for those who have gone before us with a special intention during the liturgy. The Prayer of the Faithful shares the name of the person to be prayed for.

Please visit or contact the Parish office, Monday – Friday from 9 am to 4 pm at (973) 694-3400 or visit our website www.ihmwaynenj.org/mass-card, if you would like to have a Mass offering for your loved one.

MASS INTENTION DONATION IS $20.00

Easter Sunday

The Resurrection of the Lord

Acts 10:34a, 37-43 | Col 3:1-4 or 1 Cor 5:6b-8 | Jn 20:1-9

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Wishing you a blessed Easter! One of our commitments in growing as disciples of Jesus, especially at the beginning of this most important season of Easter, is to study Scripture. John's Gospel today depicts the story of the empty tomb – the reactions of Mary of Magdala and the two disciples trying to make sense of what they had seen. What we may have missed, however, are the words of St. Peter in the first reading from Acts speaking of Jesus: “This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.” Jesus appeared post-resurrection to those to whom he was closest – the witnesses chosen by God whom he had commissioned to preach the Gospel to all people, so all might believe in him. In this way the chosen few, Christ's heralds, would bring the Good News of his resurrection to the many. So we too, now, are witnesses, chosen by God in our baptism and come to this table of thanksgiving and sacrifice. By faith we grow as his disciples, ready to go forth to lead others to him.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

As we know, these first disciples of Christ went on mission throughout the known world to preach to the Jews as well as the Gentiles. Their task was not easy; all endured opposition and hardship; many were martyred. But gone was the fear they may have felt at the crucifixion; by the power of the Holy Spirit these early missionaries were full of courage and commitment, and were driven to proclaim the risen Jesus to all. What does this have to do with us today? By virtue of our baptism, we also are chosen by God to be his witnesses in the world. We are called to “preach the Gospel” with how we live our lives. When we trust in the promises of Christ and know the peace that only he can bring, it gives us the strength to testify to friends, family and others that God loves us and has redeemed us. Good News indeed.

GROW & GO Christ is risen, Alleluia! The Resurrection means that nothing can separate us from God's love and presence with us. Spend time this week in prayer contemplating these two truths: The purpose of our lives is to continually GROW in intimate relationship with God; and Jesus' final command to his disciples and us is to “GO and make disciples of all nations.” (Mt 28:19)

“This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible.”
(Acts 10:40)

How to survive a Mass with little kids

BY ALETEIA

TALK TO YOUR KIDS ABOUT WHAT TO EXPECT

Especially if the child hasn't been to church before, have a conversation beforehand about what it's going to be like. You might walk them through what typically happens at Mass, or at Stations of the Cross, or whatever service you're attending.

For kids old enough to read, I highly recommend the Magnifikid booklets. These booklets allow kids to follow along with the Mass and all the responses on their own.

Before going into Mass, you can say something like, "Today is a special day, so let's try to spot some special things at church. See if you can find the priest wearing red vestments, people holding palms, and a special Gospel reading with different people reading the characters," offering these suggestions for the child to notice.

Looking for these "special things" will hopefully keep them occupied for at least a little while (and it might also help to sit up front so they can pay attention more easily!).

ENLIST BACK-UP

These unusually long services are the ideal time to go to Mass with relatives or helpful friends. If you have grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, kindly neighbors, whoever, plan to go to Mass with them and sit together.

I've often thought how amazing it would be if churches had a program that matched kindhearted empty-nester volunteers to help out young families with babies and toddlers during Mass. In lieu of that, if you don't live near extended family, hopefully this week is a time of year when they're visiting you (or you them) and they can accompany you for these long liturgies.

With young kids, it just means so much to have another helper. At the Vigil Mass last Christmas, we asked my parents and siblings to join us, and their presence made it all much more doable and even enjoyable!

PREPARE FOR THE DETAILS

Just a few logistical things to consider... Try to feed the little crew shortly before Mass so they aren't hungry on top of everything else. Take them to the bathroom right before Mass too, so you don't have to make the inevitable bathroom trip halfway through the homily. And pack a water bottle in your bag, so you have a quick solution if someone gets thirsty (offering water also works to quickly distract a loud child!).

PLAN A SPECIAL ACTIVITY

I like to look for activities my young kids can do in Mass that are quiet and not distracting to others, yet also reinforce faith concepts so children can participate in their own way.

When my husband was worried about Christmas Vigil Mass, he brought along a set of LCD drawing tablets for my younger children to each have one. He felt these were a life hack to make the long Mass a success. They are quiet and non-messy, and we ask our kids to draw things they see in the church.

Drawing what they see at Mass keeps them amazingly engaged and present. It's been really beautiful to see the simple little drawings they make of the manger scene, or the altar and candles, or the tabernacle, showing a remarkable attention to detail even though their little hands can't make anything very complex.

Other quiet and faith-building activities include Catholic seek-and-find books for children to look through (we like this one and this one), and in a pinch, stickers and water paint books have never failed me.

TAKE A DEEP BREATH AND KNOW YOU'RE DOING AMAZING

You really are in such a hard stage when all your kids are little. Don't get discouraged if your kids are rambunctious and rowdy. You are doing such a great job just taking them to Mass. Your sweet family is the future of the Church, and you deserve a big thank you for all the work you are doing to bring them!

SPIRITUAL GUIDED MEDITATION HOUR

"MARTHA, MARTHA, YOU ARE WORRIED AND DISTRACTED BY MANY THINGS..." (LUKE 10:41)

The account of Mary and Martha from the Gospel of St. Luke is one which is well known to us. Martha prepares, physically, for the Lord's arrival through household work. But Mary, on the other hand, sits at Jesus' feet and prepares herself to accept Jesus' teachings attentively.

Are you a "Martha" or a "Mary"?

JOIN US ON WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17TH

He is Risen!
Today we remember Jesus' sacrifice and give thanks for what he brought to our world. We thank the Lord for his blessings and wish you an Easter full of joy and peace!

Christ is Risen! Alleluia!

Easter is the time when we celebrate Jesus' rising from the dead.

Early in the morning the day after the Sabbath, the women went to the tomb and found it empty! They went and told the disciples, who went and saw it was true. Jesus' body was gone! He had risen from the dead!

Imagine the joy of Our Lady that her Son was alive again! Here is a special Easter prayer to Our Lady:

Queen of Heaven, rejoice! Alleluia!

For the Son Whom you were privileged to bear, Alleluia!

Has risen as He said. Alleluia!

Pray to God for us, Alleluia!

Rejoice and be glad, Virgin Mary, Alleluia!

For the Lord has truly risen! Alleluia!
