From Fr. Matthew Desk

The Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis during this Eucharistic Revival was initiated by the Bishops of the United States to deepen Catholics' love and devotion to our Eucharistic Lord. On Wednesday, July 17th, 50,000 Catholics filled Lucas Oil Stadium for the first revival session. The event began with the arrival of four groups of Eucharistic pilgrims from San Francisco, California; Brownsville, Texas; Crookston, Minnesota; and New Haven, Connecticut, converging in Indianapolis. The crowd cheered upon their arrival, followed by a profound silence as Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament entered the stadium. All 50,000 attendees knelt in silent adoration. I could feel the unity of the Church and why we all came to this Congress: to grow in devotion to Our Eucharistic Lord.

Throughout the five days, the Congress featured a diversity of talks on the Eucharist, aimed at families, priests, lay leaders and youth, delivered in English and Spanish. Pilgrims prayed continually before the exposed Blessed Sacrament at Saint John's Church, and multiple Masses were celebrated in various languages and liturgical traditions. The overarching theme of this all, though, was devotion to Our Eucharistic Lord and fostering a deeper love for Him.

Above all, I believe that the Congress highlighted the unity of the Church and the foundational love and hunger for the Holy Eucharist. This experience called each pilgrim to bring this devotion back to their parishes. It reminded me that the Eucharist present amid the 50,000 pilgrims is the same Lord as present on the altars of Saint Mary's, Saint John's, and Saint Therese's here in New Brunswick. As Catholics, we are called to never take this gift for granted but to continually allow our Lord to foster this unity in our community and to be renewed by the graces offered to us by Our Eucharistic Lord.

El Congreso Eucarístico en Indianápolis durante este Avivamiento Eucarístico fue iniciado por los Obispos de los Estados Unidos para profundizar el amor y la devoción de los católicos a nuestro Señor Eucarístico. El miércoles 17 de julio, 50.000 católicos llenaron el estadio Lucas Oil para la primera sesión de avivamiento. El evento inició con la llegada de cuatro grupos de peregrinos eucarísticos provenientes de San Francisco, California; Brownsville, Texas; Crookston, Minnesota; y New Haven, Connecticut, convergiendo en Indianápolis. La multitud aplaudió su llegada, seguida de un profundo silencio cuando Nuestro Señor Sacramentado entró al estadio. Los 50.000 asistentes se arrodillaron en silenciosa adoración. Pude sentir la unidad de la Iglesia y por qué todos vinimos a este Congreso: para crecer en devoción a Nuestro Señor Eucarístico.

A lo largo de los cinco días, el Congreso contó con una diversidad de charlas sobre la Eucaristía, dirigidas a familias, sacerdotes, líderes laicos y jóvenes, impartidas en inglés y español. Los peregrinos oraron continuamente ante el Santísimo Sacramento expuesto en la Iglesia de San Juan, y se celebraron múltiples misas en varios idiomas y tradiciones litúrgicas. Sin embargo, el tema general de todo esto fue la devoción a Nuestro Señor Eucarístico y el fomento de un amor más profundo por Él.

Sobre todo, creo que el Congreso destacó la unidad de la Iglesia y el amor y el hambre fundacionales por la Sagrada Eucaristía. Esta experiencia llamó a cada peregrino a llevar esta devoción a sus parroquias. Me recordó que la Eucaristía presente entre los 50.000 peregrinos es el mismo Señor presente en los altares de Santa María, San Juan y Santa Teresa aquí en New Brunswick. Como Católicos, estamos llamados a nunca dar por sentado este don, sino a permitir continuamente que nuestro Señor fomente esta unidad en nuestra comunidad y ser renovados por la gracia que nos ofrece Nuestro Señor Eucarístico.

Dear Friends,
Let us remember the past with gratitude,
live the present with enthusiasm,
and look forward to the future with confidence.

This counsel of Saint John Paul II comes to mind in sending this message to you! The thirteen years I have spent among you in ministry is a gift for which I am truly grateful.

Words can hardly convey all that I hold in my heart for the wonderful parish of which I was so privileged to serve. Thank you for the many acts of kindness and generosity you have shown me over the years. Your goodness will always be remembered and have a special place in my prayers. In the midst of the changes life brings, our challenge is to see what doesn't change—God's tremendous and unconditional love for us. May this knowledge rouse our enthusiasm as we look forward to the future with confidence.

Thank you for being a blessing in my ministry.
With affection and gratitude,
'Sister Frances Gervasio, MPF

Queridos amigos,
Recordemos el pasado con gratitud,
vivir el presente con entusiasmo,
y mirar hacia el futuro con confianza.

¡Este consejo de San Juan Pablo II me viene a la mente al enviaros este mensaje! Los trece años que he pasado entre vosotros en el ministerio son un regalo por el que estoy verdaderamente agradecido.

Las palabras difícilmente pueden expresar todo lo que tengo en mi corazón por la maravillosa parroquia en la que tuve el privilegio de servir. Gracias por los muchos actos de bondad y generosidad que me han mostrado a lo largo de los años. Tu bondad siempre será recordada y tendrá un lugar especial en mis oraciones.

En medio de los cambios que trae la vida, nuestro desafío es ver qué no cambio: el tremendo e incondicional amor de Dios por nosotros. Que este conocimiento despierte nuestro entusiasmo mientras miramos hacia el futuro con confianza.

Gracias por ser una bendición en mi ministerio.
Con cariño y gratitud,
'Hermana Frances Gervasio, MPF

The Promises of God are all about God, not us!
Psalm 145:13 says: "The Lord is trustworthy in all his promises and faithful in all he does." As we grow to understand who God is, we will understand His character, His goodness, and His power. Trusting in the promises of God starts with trusting God for who He says He is.

¡Las Promesas de Dios tienen que ver con Dios, no con nosotros!
Salmo 145:13 dice: "El Señor es confiable en todas sus promesas y fiel en todo lo que hace". A medida que comprendamos quién es Dios, comprenderemos Su carácter, Su bondad y Su poder. Confiar en las promesas de Dios comienza con confiar en Dios por quien dice ser.
