From the Pastor's Desk

Cardinal O'Malley the Emeritus Archbishop of Boston pronounces the name of the blind man in today's gospel by putting the accent on the second syllable: BarTImeous. the word "bar" in Hebrew means "son of" so he calls the blind man "Son of Tim." Tim's son teaches us several things.

Firstly about how to carry our crosses. We find him lying by the side of the road begging. He can't do otherwise. Maybe Tim died without adequate life insurance leaving his son nothing. Tim's son does what he needs to survive. He knows about Jesus; so he is well informed.

Secondly he teaches us to be steadfast in prayer. He calls out to Jesus repeatedly, "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me." He calls louder and louder. Even when the people around him are annoyed and tell him to be silent, he calls out all the more.

Tim's son also teaches us how we should behave towards each other. Jesus calls him and the people around him, the same ones who were just telling him to shut up, tell him "Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you." They are happy for Tim's son, not jealous or envious that Jesus called him.

Tim's son teaches us to be ready and to take the opportunity when it presents itself. He throws off his cloak and stands up. Here's the problem. How does he get to Jesus? He's blind. There is a crowd. How can he walk to Jesus?

There is only one way. The people around him lead the son of Tim to Jesus. The people around us help us to find Jesus we should not ignore this very valuable aid, what's more we should be grateful, and at the same time we should help others come to Jesus.

What does Son of Tim do once he encounters Jesus and is healed in body and soul? He follows him.

"Go thou and do likewise." Luke 10:37

El cardenal O'Malley, arzobispo emérito de Boston, que tiene un doctorado en literatura española y portuguesa, pronuncia el nombre del hombre ciego en el evangelio de hoy en inglés poniendo el acento en la segunda sílaba: BarTImeo. la palabra "bar" en hebreo significa "hijo de", así que llama al hombre ciego "Hijo de Tim" ("Tim es un apodo en inglés para "Timoteo"). El hijo de Tim nos enseña varias cosas.

En primer lugar, cómo debemos cargar las cruces. Lo encontramos al lado de la carretera pidiendo limosnas. Él no puede hacer otra cosa. Tal vez Tim murió sin un seguro de vida adecuado dejándole nada a su hijo. El hijo de Tim hace lo que pueda para sobrevivir. Él conoce de Jesús, por lo cual está bien informado.

En segundo lugar, nos enseña a ser firmes en la oración. Él clama repetidamente a Jesús: "Jesús, hijo de David, ten compasión de mí". Llama cada vez más fuerte, incluso cuando las personas que lo rodean se enojan y le dicen que guarde silencio, grita aún más fuerte.

El hijo de Tim también nos enseña cómo debemos comportarnos el uno con el otro. Jesús lo llama a él. Las personas que lo rodean, los mismos que le estaban mandándolo a callar, le dicen: "¡ánimo! Levántate, porque Él te llama." Están dispuestos a ayudar a Tim, no están celosos o envidiosos porque Jesús lo llamó.

Timdez (como Hernandez = "hijo de Hernán") nos enseña a estar listos, preparados, y que aprovechemos la oportunidad cuando se presente. tira su manto a un lado y se levanta. Aquí está el problema. ¿Cómo llegará a Jesús? Él es ciego. Hay una multitud. ¿Cómo podrá caminar a Jesús?

Solo hay una manera. Las personas que lo rodean guían al ciego hijo de Tim a Jesús. Igualmente, las personas que nos rodean a nosotros nos ayudan a encontrar a Jesús. No debemos ignorar esta valiosa ayuda es mas debemos agradecerla, y al mismo tiempo debemos ayudar a otros a venir a Jesús.

¿Qué hace el Hijo de Tim una vez que encuentra a Jesús y es sanado en cuerpo y alma? Él lo sigue.

"Anda entonces y haz tú lo mismo" Lucas 10:37.

Grace Shines Forth in Everyday Life

As contemplative Nuns, we here at the Flemington Carmel don't keep up with all the news that gets printed out or posted online. We certainly are aware of the important events in our country and around the world. Those are important subjects of our prayers. But we don't follow all the details. God knows them and what He wants to see is how much we care about the people involved and how deeply we are present with them in spirit.

Because we don't follow the details of the news, people can think that we are naïve. This is a big mistake! We too live the struggles and joys, the ups and downs that are part of everyday life.

Even more than that, we know what people outside of our community live through. We know because they ask us for the support of our prayers. We know what they struggle with and many times the struggles are heartbreaking. But what outshines all the pain is the heroic love that people show without even realizing it. The patient endurance of families to keep all the members healthy in body and in spirit. The love shown to suffering neighbors. The outreach to the poor, the marginalized, those with crisis pregnancies. All these are manifestations of God's grace that never make the news but that transform the world to those with eyes to see.

La Gracia Brilla en la Vida Cotidiana

Como monjas contemplativas, aquí en el Carmelo de Flemington no nos mantenemos al día con todas las noticias que se imprimen o se publican en línea. Sin duda, estamos al tanto de los eventos importantes en nuestro país y en todo el mundo. Esos son temas importantes de nuestras oraciones. Pero no seguimos todos los detalles. Dios los conoce y lo que Él quiere ver es cuánto nos preocupamos por las personas involucradas y cuán profundamente estamos presentes con ellas en espíritu.

Debido a que no seguimos los detalles de las noticias, la gente puede pensar que somos ingenuos. ¡Este es un gran error! Nosotros también vivimos las luchas y las alegrías, los altibajos que son parte de la vida cotidiana.

Más aún, sabemos lo que viven las personas fuera de nuestra comunidad. Lo sabemos porque nos piden el apoyo de nuestras oraciones. Sabemos con qué luchan y muchas veces las luchas son desgarradoras. Pero lo que eclipsa todo el dolor es el amor heroico que las personas muestran sin siquiera darse cuenta. La paciencia de las familias para mantener a todos sus miembros sanos en cuerpo y espíritu. El amor demostrado a los vecinos que sufren. La ayuda a los pobres, a los marginados, a las embarazadas en crisis. Todas estas son manifestaciones de la gracia de Dios que nunca aparecen en las noticias, pero que transforman el mundo para quienes tienen ojos para ver.

"Only in Christ can men and women find answers to the ultimate questions that trouble them. Only in Christ can they fully understand their dignity as persons created and loved by God."

Pope St. John Paul II

"Sólo en Cristo el hombre puede encontrar respuestas a las preguntas últimas que lo inquietan. Sólo en Cristo puede comprender plenamente su dignidad de persona creada y amada por Dios."

Papa San Juan Pablo II

Parish Registration

If you are 18 or older, you should be registered as a parishioner independently from your parents. If you are not a registered member, you are not eligible for letters of Sponsorship. Do you receive envelopes but never use them? We have no way of proving your attendance at Mass (Which is a criteria for sponsor letters). The only way to verify faithful attendance at Mass is through the envelope system. Thank you!

Registro Parroquial

Si tienes 18 años o más, debes registrarte como feligrés independientemente de tus padres. Si no eres un miembro registrado, no eres elegible para recibir cartas de patrocinio. ¿Recibes sobres pero nunca los usas? No tenemos forma de comprobar tu asistencia a misa (que es un criterio para las cartas de patrocinio). La única forma de verificar la asistencia fiel a misa es a través del sistema de sobres. ¡Gracias!

Stress In Your Marriage?

- Do you feel lost, alone or bored in your marriage?
- Are you frustrated, hurt or angry with your spouse?
- Have you thought about separation or divorce?
 - Does talking about it only make it worse?

Thanksgiving Food Drive

has started this month and will go through November. The Parish will be collecting any script cards from food stores for baskets we will be putting together for our Parishioners in need. Script cards and monetary donations are being accepted at this time. We can make a difference in the lives of our community by collecting and donating these items.

La Colecta de alimentos para el Día de Acción de Gracias

comenzó este mes y se extenderá hasta noviembre. La parroquia recolectará tarjetas con guiones de las tiendas de alimentos para las canastas que armaremos para nuestros feligreses necesitados. En este momento, se aceptan tarjetas con guiones y donaciones monetarias. Podemos marcar una diferencia en la vida de nuestra comunidad recolectando y donando estos artículos.

Daily Verse

"We belong to God, and anyone who knows God listens to us, while anyone who does not belong to God refuses to hear us. This is how we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of deceit."
