In the Case of an Emergency:

Please call the Parish Office. If closed, listen to and follow the prompts to be connected to a priest. Emergencies are situations such as an anointing when in danger of death.

Vocations:

Please contact Fr. Don Williams or Fr. Brian Clarke if you would like to discern a vocation to priesthood, religious life, or marriage.

What Age to Register as an Adult:

When one finishes formal education (High School or University), young adults need to register with the parish as adults.

Welcome to St. Matthew's Parish: Please call the Parish Office for information about registering, baptizing your child, or obtaining a signed eligibility form to be a Godparent for Baptism or a Confirmation Sponsor.

ORDINATION OF DEACON JAN CARLO
PEREZ

Congratulations & many blessings to Deacon Jan Carlo!!! On Saturday, June 27th, at 10:00 am, he will be ordained to the Priesthood at the Cathedral of St. Peter in Scranton, PA.

St. Matthew's Church is providing transportation to the Cathedral. A bus will leave here at 8:30 am. Anyone interested in attending the ordination, please call the Parish Office to reserve a seat.

Rev. Jan Carlo will preside at a bilingual Mass of Thanksgiving here at St. Matthew at 2 pm on Sunday, June 28th. A reception will be held in our Parish Hall following Mass.

All are welcome!

Pope Leo called the day "an occasion of grace in which we share some reflections on the interior dimension of vocation, understood as the discovery of God's free gift that blossoms in the depths of our hearts." He also called it an opportunity to "explore together the truly beautiful path of life along which the Shepherd guides us."

Please Pray for our Seminarians

Deacon Jan Carlo Perez

Cody Yarnall

Jacob Mutchler

Heavenly Father,

We give you thanks for bestowing your many gifts upon the Church of Scranton.

Send your Holy Spirit upon the people of this diocese.

Help them to bear your voice and respond to your call.

Raise up priests, religious sisters, deacons, and brothers from among your flock to serve your people.

Give them the knowledge to recognize the gifts you have given them, the courage to answer you, the wisdom to follow you throughout their life, and the wonder and awe to see your hand in all things.

Conform St. Matthew's Church into the mystical body of your Son, each taking up their unique place so that we may proclaim Christ always through our preaching, our service, and our very lives.

Amen

World Day of Prayer for Vocations: April 26th

Today the Church throughout the world prays for vocations. The purpose of World Day of Prayer for Vocations is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and to the consecrated life. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), consecrated life in all its forms (male and female religious life, societies of apostolic life, consecrated virginity, secular institutes), and to the missionary life.

“May you know the hope that belongs to his call.”

Ephesians 1:18

Those living in the world today know many things: despair, anxiety, doubt, confusion. To say we are living in a time of great hope doesn't seem like the obvious description, and yet, as Christians, we know this to be true – for hope requires “placing our trust in Christ's promises and relying not on our own strength, but on the help of the grace of the Holy Spirit” (CCC 1817).

As Catholics around the world continue to celebrate the Jubilee Year of Hope, our local Church in the Diocese of Scranton also rejoices in hope as more of our young people decide to answer the Lord's call. This year, Bishop Joseph Bambera accepted five new seminarians from three different countries, four different counties, and five different parishes.

The increasing number of seminarians for the Diocese of Scranton correlates to national trends noted in the 2025 CARA Report, which surveyed more than 300 men preparing for priestly ordination across the United States.

God has given you a vocation to serve him in a way that no one else can. This vocation may be to serve him as a diocesan priest. If you place your trust in the Lord, you too can discover the hope found in loving and serving God and then share that hope with a world that is all too familiar with despair.

- Have you ever felt called to follow a plan greater than your own?
- When you hear God's word, are you filled with a desire to share it?
- Do you want to lay down your life to minister to God's people?
- Are you drawn to the diocesan priesthood?

If you answered “yes” to one or more of these questions, God may be calling you to serve his people as a priest.

Where do you go from here?

- First and foremost, listen to God's voice in prayer. As the Catechism tells us, “Hope is expressed and nourished in prayer, especially in the Our Father, the summary of everything that hope leads us to desire” (CCC 1820).
- Connect with your parish priest and become active in the life of your faith community through the sacraments, service, and fellowship.
- Check out the material available on this site and our social media accounts for more information about events and discernment tips.
- Reach out to our vocation director, Fr. Alex Roche, for a conversation.
- Trust that your God has a plan for you, that he sustains you through it all, and that he is inviting you to know the hope that is found in his call.

To get in touch with the Vocations Office, please email vocations@dioceseofscranton.org or contact Father Alex Roche, our Diocesan Director of Vocations and Seminarians.
