THIS WEEK IN SCRIPTURE

"You, son of man, I have appointed watchman for the house of Israel... But if you warn the wicked man, trying to turn him from his way, and he refuses to turn from his way, he shall die for his guilt… If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won him over… if two of you agree about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

No one likes to have someone tell him that they are doing something wrong, and many hesitate to offer correction. But the saying goes that the only way for evil to triumph is for good persons to do nothing. As we try to grow as Christians, we are obliged to speak up and speak out to change, whether individually or collectively.

Matthew offers the key to unity and change as he says, 'if he listens to you.' Listening allows us to think, deliberate, and then act. This provides the opportunity to join with the two or three, and discover that the Lord is present to resolve whatever difficulty. Yes, 'the Spirit of the Lord present in me, greets the Spirit of the Lord present in you.'

AT HOME WITH THE WORD

This week (for further reflection):

First Reading: Ezekiel 33:7-9

God has appointed the prophet as a watchman over his people. If he fails to give them warning against sin, he will be held responsible.

Second Reading: Romans 13:8-10

In this beautiful letter, Paul says that all commandments are contained in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Gospel: Matthew 18:15-20

Jesus explains to his disciples how to respond to those who wrong them – with gentleness and practical wisdom. He promises that whenever "two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in their midst."

Next week (for prayerful preparation):

Sir 27:30 – 28:7; Rom 14:7-9; Mt 18:21-35

PASTOR'S CORNER

This past year people have often asked, "How do you manage it all – two parishes, three worship sites, a prison and a hospital chapel?" I often admit that I do sometimes wake up with a string of questions in my mind: "What day is this? … Where am I supposed to be? … What time? … And what do I when I get there?"

This fall we're introducing another wrinkle in the parish (and school) schedule. As you may be aware, St John Neumann Regional Academy has introduced a four-day week for high school students. To make that schedule work for teachers and students, we opted for a different approach for the high school celebrations of Mass. Let me explain.

In previous years, SJNRA had scheduled a Wednesday 10am Mass. Usually that celebration alternated between the elementary and secondary communities. Big occasions—holy day of obligation, the Bishop's annual visit, St John Neumann's feast day, etc.—involved all grades.

This year, we're shifting that a little bit.

School Masses will be Thursdays rather than Wednesdays. When it's an elementary school Mass or an all-academy Mass it stays at 10am. But, the other weeks—the high school Masses—will happen at our already scheduled 8am Mass. Students will take the lead on serving, lectoring, and leading music. But, it's still an 8am parish Mass, almost always with Fr Dias or myself as celebrant.

How do we know when this happens? I'd love to tell you it's completely alternating weeks, but that wouldn't be quite true. Those days of obligation and those special all-academy Masses do have a tendency to pop up almost randomly. So, my advice to all of us: Read the bulletin. There'll always be an 8am Mass. If there's a 10am, it'll be included in the Mass schedule that week.

Hope to see many of you at Thursday 8am Masses! I'm sure we'll appreciate the young crowd. I trust they will appreciate our prayers and support as they continue their Catholic education.

Fr. McCreary

HOSPITAL VISITS

If you or a family member is hospitalized or admitted to a nursing facility and would like a pastoral visit from a priest, please contact the Parish Office (570-326-1544). Hospitals and healthcare facilities do not make the parishes aware when someone is admitted. Our priests can administer the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick and the Sacrament of Reconciliation. To arrange these sacraments or for any visits, please call. If it is an emergency after the office is closed, please follow the directions on the answering machine for ext 306.

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION

Does your love for the Eucharist include a desire to distribute Communion at Mass? Would you like to assist the Priest at Mass by distributing the Eucharist as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion?

Extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion assist the Priest to prepare and distribute the Body and Blood of Christ to the people during the Liturgy of the Eucharist. This involves bringing the hosts from the tabernacle to the altar after the Lamb of God is sung or spoken. They stand at the altar with the Priest, pray with the assembly and reverently distribute the Body and Blood of Christ to the people. The extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, who are usually adults, have special instruction before they perform this ministry. They also take the Eucharist to believers who are unable to attend Mass due to illness or disability. To join this special ministry, volunteers are required to be practicing Catholics and attend a short training. Send an email or call the Parish Office to inquire.

PRISON MINISTRY

"I was in prison and you came to me." Lord, when did we see thee in prison and came to thee? "Amen, I say to you, as long as you did it to one of these least brethren, you did it to me." [Matthew 25]

Looking for a way to serve? Look into Prison Ministry. It is safe, secure, and very fulfilling and satisfying. To find out more, contact: Phil Buehrer prbuehrer@aol.com, 570-326-6801; Keith Kuzio keithkuzio@comcast.net, 570-337-3810; Robert Kibbe rmkibbe81@gmail.com, 570-419-5905; Dave Steinbacher dsteinbacher@steinbacherinc.com, 570-220-0967

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. A careful judgment about the serious nature of the illness is sufficient. When the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is given, the hoped-for effect is that, if it be God's will, the person be physically healed of illness. But even if there is no physical healing, the primary effect of the Sacrament is a spiritual healing by which the sick person receives the Holy Spirit's gift of peace and courage to deal with the difficulties that accompany serious illness or the frailty of old age. If you or a family member is in need of Anointing the Sick, please call. If it is an emergency after the office is closed, please follow the directions on the answering machine for ext 306.
